Empowering Business Leaders

Born out of necessity from COVID19, BusinessAllies Roundtables are an alliance of entrepreneurial business leaders committed to encouraging and supporting each other as businesses emerge from COVID19 and the recession.

INTRODUCING BUSINESSALLIES ROUNDTABLES

Made up of business leaders who want to accelerate their growth, BusinessAllies Roundtables are monthly sessions that provide an opportunity to challenge goals and to support and advise peers as likeminded professionals.

Conducted online over a 6 month period, business allies come together virtually to discuss self-identified themes, whilst creating the scope for individual needs to be discussed and commitments engaged.

These like-minded entrepreneurs share their challenges and opportunities (knowing that these will be largely shared by the group), and the collective wisdom will benefit all.

BusinessAllies Roundtables are for non-competing businesses and structured around teams of business leaders from similar sized enterprises.

Stronger together

WHY ARE WE DOING THIS?

"Entrepreneurs shouldn't struggle alone to 'get back to business' when the opportunity is before them to share their extraordinary capabilities with other seasoned entrepreneurs passionate to share their business ideas and to feed on the enthusiasm of others. Our job is to assist you to discover (or re-discover) your own capabilities and to learn from your peers.

Based on our 30 years in business consulting, we strongly believe that entrepreneurs committed to sharing and supporting each other through challenging business models and solutions in strictly respectful peers to peer roundtables is the best solution to business growth leadership"

- Frank Wyatt, Strategic Advisor, Enterprising Partnerships.

What our members say

“As the former CEO of Kingston Council for many years, joined a group of business owners or CEOs that meet for 2 hours each month. These facilitated discussions provided insights, informal mentoring, learning and business development opportunities that we would otherwise not had. Conducted under Chatham House Rules these meetings were energising and very often inspiring. Attending was something all members looked forward to and their sustained success over more than a decade in no small part was due to the Facilitator’s expertise, his own business experiences and the knowledge and insights he brought to our discussions topped off by his ability to succinctly summarise our discussions and learnings.”

John Nevins, former CEO, KingstonCity Council

“When I first joined a Roundtable, I was concerned about how business leaders would view giving up 2 hours a month, but it quickly became clear that the Roundtable contributed so much to their business solutions and planning that they were happy to invest 2 hours, and give back to the others in the group .”

Stephen Wooster, Independent Business Advisor

“During my time with the Roundtable, I met a range of very high calibre people and decision-makers. The values of these entrepreneurs drive their business decisions and sharing ideas with peers strengthens the resolve and innovativity of us all”.

Michael Warshall, Chairman of The Board at Emotion Holdings, Emotion Wedding Photography and Picturemaker Printing

“I was impressed by how Frank Wyatt facilitated the Roundtable and how he could extract from business leaders their own concerns, beliefs and fears to be shared with other business leaders to support and contribute to each other whilst providing invaluable implicit coaching and insights – it was well worth the time and investment in joining”

Shannon Egglestone, CEO, Richstone Group
